

Bernhard Jasper

Director/ Director of Photography

Bernhard Jasper was born in Germany at the 18th of November 1972.

He is a cinematographer and director.

With the age of 14 he started making short films and music clips himself, using the local school kit and later, at 15, his own first film camera. At the age of 19 he had several short films made and entered one into an amateur film festival.

Finally, he passed the entrance test of the Filmacademy Ludwigsburg (Germany) in 1996 and studied directing and cinematography there for five years, making approx. 25 short films, several Music clips and some commercials. During the academy he specialized himself in cinematography and became the opportunity to work in the real film business. So he shot a lot of commercials and music clips for famous German music acts and companies.

After his final degree in 2001 he shot his first TV movie. This was the access for him to the German Film market. Since than he shot 9 TV Features and 21 Movies, most of which are among the most successful German box office films. He also shot the international movies „Open water 2“ and „Life above all“ who made it into the Oscar shortlist 2011.

For both seasons of the first German Amazon series „You Are Wanted“ (2017-2019), Bernhard Jasper was not only responsible for the cinematography, but also for the direction. He's currently working on a prequel for Zack Snyder's Army of the dead.
